

TELECOM NAMIBIA DONATES LEARNER DESKS AND CHAIRS TO OKANGHUDI COMBINED SCHOOL, OHANGWENA REGION

Telecom Namibia, on the 30 September, donated 150 desks and 150 chairs to the Okanghudi Combined School, in the Ondobe Circuit, Ohangwena Region. The brand-new school furniture worth approximately N$90,000 supports the Government's agenda to deliver quality education and ensure the dignity of learners.

The handover was done by Mr Junias Kalimbo, Telecom Namibia's Senior Manager: Regional Technical Operations. In his remarks, Kalimbo expressed the undeniable importance of school furniture. "Learner desks and chairs play a significant role in the effectiveness of learning and sets an environment conducive for positive development. School furniture contributes to the comfort, posture, and support of learners, all of which, contributes positively towards their ability to concentrate and work," he stated.

He further stated that Telecom Namibia believes that the development of Namibia is not the responsibility of government alone, and as such, TN continuously channels available resources were required. "Telecom Namibia remains committed to the social and economic growth and development of the people of Namibia. We continue to assure our stakeholders and the Namibian community that Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) is an integral part of our corporate culture.

By carrying out our corporate and social responsibilities we strive to build and foster harmonious relationships and provide benefits to the communities in which we operate", he further stated.

In conclusion Kalimbo thanked the Education Director, the Inspector, School Principal, teachers, and learners for the warm welcome and asked that all learners care for the new equipment and respect the investment TN has made towards their education. "We trust that the donation will serve the purpose for which it is intended; and that the community will be custodians of this donation. We strongly call on the school principal, teachers, and learners to protect this furniture for the present and future generations. It is our wish that these chairs and tables stand the test of time and help boost academic performance in this school," he concluded.

The handover ceremony was attended by Mr. Isack Hamatwi, Education Director in the Ministry of Education, Arts and Culture, Ms. Leena Ithindi, Inspector of Education in the Ondobe Circuit, Mr. Matheus Nekongo Principal at the Okanghudi Combined School, School Board Members, teachers, and learners of Okanghudi Combined School, and the media, amongst others.

HOW TO SPOT & AVOID SCAMMERS

Please note Telecom Namibia will not ask for information about your account and/or any services by phone call or text and we furthermore appeal to the public not to open any survey links in circulation, claiming to be from Telecom Namibia. We will notify stakeholders through established channels when we require information.

IMPERSONATOR SCAMS

Scammers pretend to be calling you from Telecom Namibia and trick you into giving personal information.

ONLINE SURVEY (CUSTOMER REWARD PROGRAM) SCAM

Survey pops up on selected social platforms and offers fake free gifts or other bogus inducements in return for completing the

PHISHING SCAM

Scammers use email or text messages to trick you into giving personal information.

If you are unsure about a text message, phone call or online survey you have received, please contact:

Customer Contact Centre on 11000

WhatsApp message to +26485211111

Inbox us on our social media platforms

For any further queries please send mail to CommPR@telecom.na

Sharing your world

THE (ALMOST) IMPOSSIBLE CHOICE

10Mbps	N$699
15Mbps	N$779
25Mbps	N$898

Uncapped + free installation!

3 mega speeds.
3 unbeatable prices.
Which will you choose?

*Free installation for residential customers only.
Offer valid until 13 December 2021. All prices exclude VAT.
For more information, visit your nearest Teleshop or call us toll free on 11000.
Terms and Conditions apply.